Dear Mr. Brasseur:

I wish to thank you for your kindness in sending me a copy of the Commission's report, "General Management of the Executive Branch," and the task force study in connection therewith.

I wish also to express my appreciation for being placed on your mailing list for the subsequent reports. I know they will all be of value to me personally and to other interested individuals in this Agency.

I have informed the official in CIA responsible for publications procurement of the arrangements you have made to make copies available for general use, and we shall certainly take advantage of the opportunity.

Sincerely,
